. . . AT THE EVENTS OF THE 1947-48 SCHOOL YEAR. THIS YEAR HAS SEEN MANY REMARKABLE THINGS, SUCH AS THE MAJOR VICTORY OVER THE CHOCTAWS AND THE DAYS OF ICE AND SNOW SO UNUSUAL TO THIS COLLEGE IN THE DEEP SOUTH. THESE AND ALL THE OTHER THINGS OF INTEREST WE HAVE TRIED TO PICTURE IN THIS GLIMPSE OF "MILLSAPS THROUGH MAGAZINES."

To

DR. JOSEPH BAILEY PRICE

We, the students of Millsaps College, dedicate this, the 1948 BOBACHELA. Known by our science enthusiasts as a real friend and helper, Dr. Price has endeared himself to many through his patience, wisdom, and kindness. No character portrayal of him would be complete without some mention of his understanding and sincerity. Always ready to lend a sympathetic ear to students' problems, his advice is in accordance with the best ethics of science coupled with parental knowledge.

In the scientific world, his ability and intelligence are shown not only through his membership in Theta Nu Sigma and Alpha Epsilon Delta, but also through his current experimentation on green sand. On the latter side, "Doc" is noted for such expressions of his as "Let me think, for a change."

Thus, because of his wisdom and his friendship and because of the innumerable little traits which endear him to all, to Dr. J. B. Price is this yearbook dedicated.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater, dear old Millsaps,
Loyal sons are we.
Our fond hearts are thine alone
And ever more shall be.

Proud art thou, in classic beauty,
Of thy noble past.
With thy watchword Honor, Duty
Thy high fame shall last.

Every student, man and maiden,
Swell the glad refrain,
Till the breezes music-laden
Waft it back again.

Proud art thou, in classic beauty,
Of thy noble past.
With thy watchword Honor, Duty
Thy high fame shall last.

A G I F T . . .

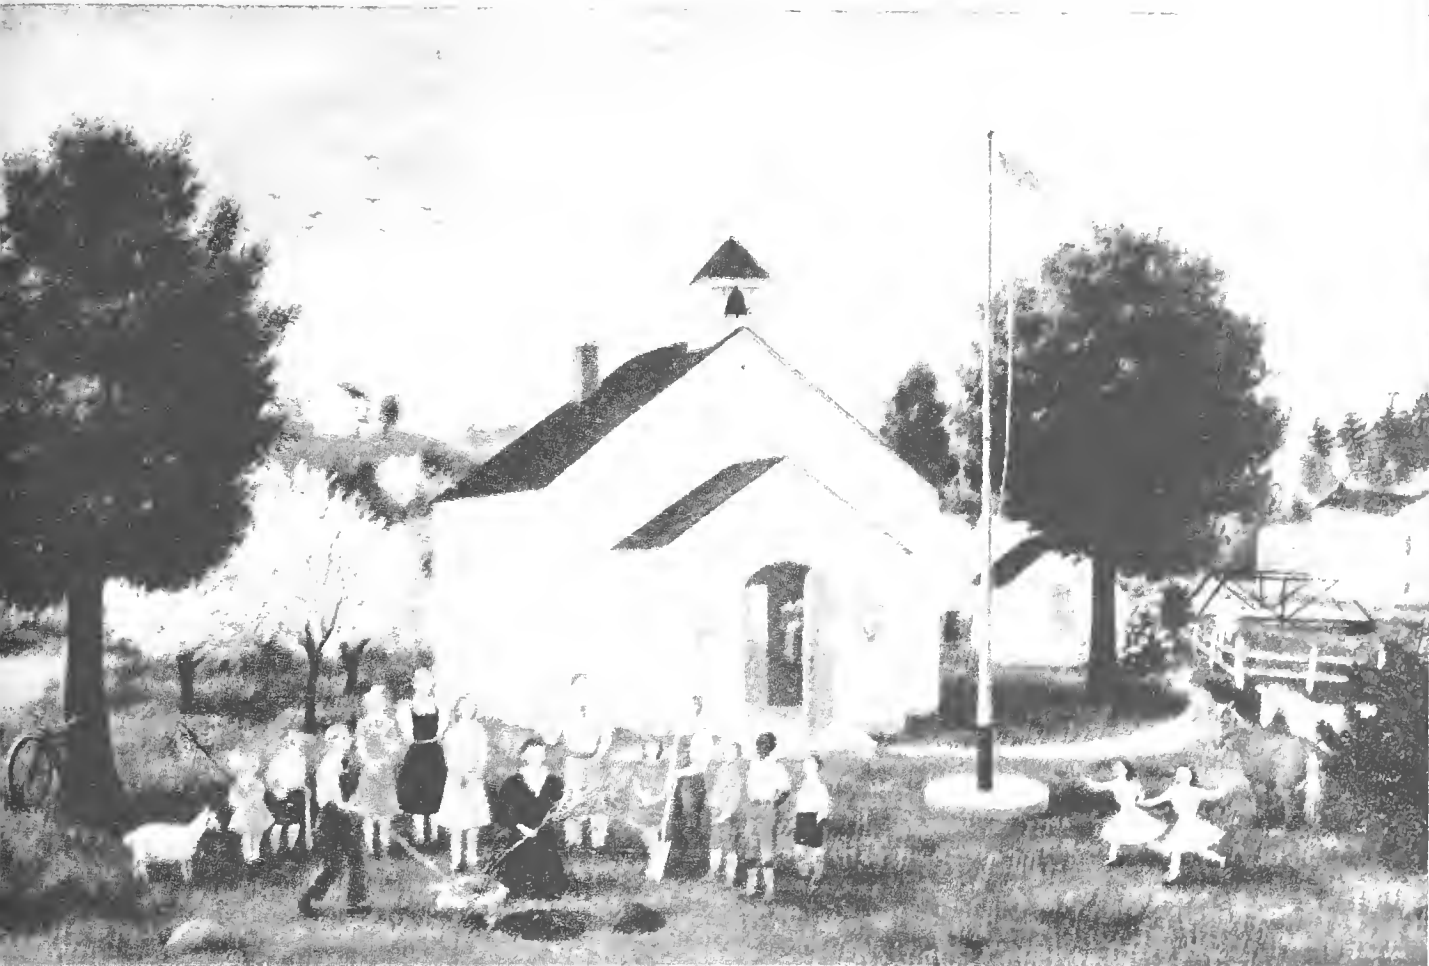

. . . From the "Brethren in the south pasture" to the student body of Millsaps on the occasion of the annual Major-Choctaw football clash was this glaring tribute in big black letters. To further enhance the beauty of the picture, they added that slight tinge of intelligence evident in the spelling of the final word!

This present came fast on the heels of an open letter from their student body to our student body requesting a truce in activities which were harmful to students and campus. Evidently, after pushing the cannon off its pedestal and uprooting the school's bell, they ran out of any ideas short of murder.

In spite of their efforts to get rid of Millsaps so easily, the arch-enemy was forced to "bite the dust" to the tune of a 7-0 victory for the purple-and-white boys. So it seems that even if all Millsaps didn't burn in the prescribed fashion, enough blood boiled to put out the necessary steam to roll down the field to victory.

To Dr. Marion Loftan Smith the entire student body looks for leadership and inspiration. This tireless, ever patient Southern gentleman is loved and long remembered by all who pass through the halls of Millsaps. Always concerned with the welfare and happiness of each student and faculty member, Dr. Smith exemplifies what the real college president should be.

THE DEAN

With his characteristic vitality and endurance, Dr. William Emil Riecken performs the duties not only of Dean of Millsaps, but also of Dean of Men. In addition to this, he takes his place as an instructor in biology and yet finds time to lend an ear to the woes of all.

DR. W. E. RIECKEN

DR. E. S. WALLACE

THE REGISTRAR

Taking on the task of seeing that all students are properly enrolled and are in the right places at the right times, Dr. E. S. Wallace deserves bouquets for a job well done. He still somehow manages to find enough time to turn out economists well prepared to meet the future brightly.

MR. J. W. WOOD

A D M I N I S

BURSAR

Although new to Millsaps' portals this year, Mr. Pete Woods has undertaken in a vigorous and open-minded manner the mammoth job of holding the college purse-strings. Judging by the progress he has made so far, we prophesy a "Campus Beautiful" in no time at all.

MR. HAROLD S. MUSTIN

ASSISTANT BURSAR

What would Millsaps do without the cheerful smile and helping hand of Mr. Harold Mustin! A vital member of the "purse-strings crew," Mr. Mustin has come to be a great favorite among faculty and students.

T R A T I O N

DEAN OF WOMEN

One of the best-loved women on the faculty is Mrs. Mary Stone. An able advisor for all the women students, she extends her hospitality to all and lends her energy to any worthwhile undertaking.

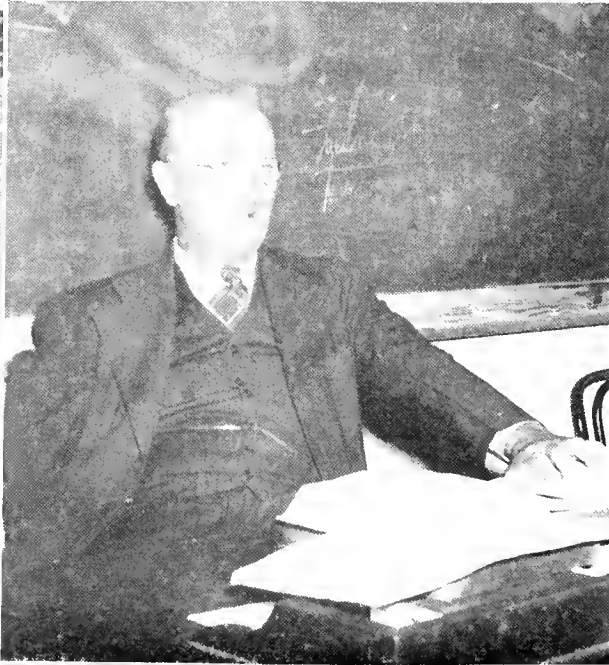

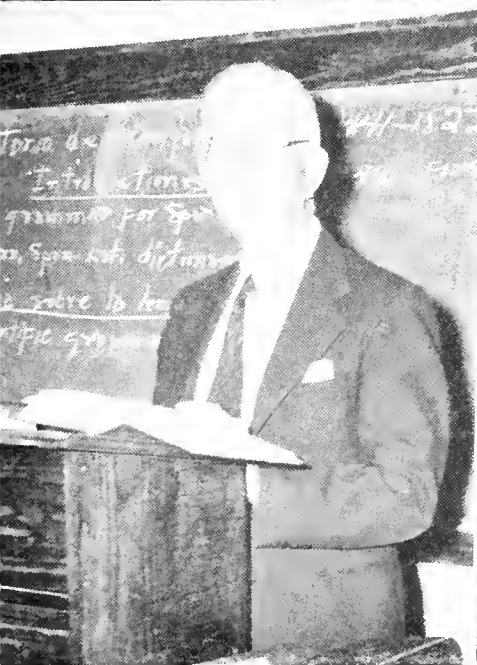

MRS. MARY STONE

DR. RAY S. MUSGRAVE

DEAN OF FRESHMEN

Dr. Ray S. Musgrave, who so ably counsels our frosh, plays a major part in the general happiness of the campus as a whole. His geniality and "psychology applied" make him a well-known and highly respected personality.

SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

President of the Senior Class, Lowry Rush graduated at mid-term and is now attending Ole Miss Medical School. While at Millsaps, he played on the football team and served as Coach's assistant. He was also a member of Kappa Alpha. (And we might add, it was his wife who was chosen our Football Queen in '46-'47.)

Charlie Wright, who serves as vice president of the group, is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha and is president of the B. S. U. He has been a member of many campus organizations and has served as an officer in several of them.

Where can we begin to name the honors Lee has achieved? She's in just about all the honoraries, many of the clubs, and has been president of many groups, chief among these being Beta Sig. Secretary-treasurer Lee has been a beauty more than once, is now Miss Millsaps, and is in Who's Who.

Our SENIOR Year

. . . Was one of the most successful years of Millsaps, ending the first of June when many of its students pass down the aisle towards diplomas and the end of college life. Seventeen graduated at mid-term and among them were the class president, Rush, and the star of Alpha Psi Omega hits, Mitchie Applewhite.

Millsaps' post-war Homecoming was gala in spite of the showers that drenched all the floats in the parade and all the football fans and players. Despite the mud and rain, the Majors came through with another victory for the Purple and White. The annual Millsaps-Mississippi College classic was one to be long remembered in our history, as the Majors defeated the Chactaws 7-0 to break a decade's losing streak.

Christmas and McIntosh were honored as Little All-America football team members.

Millsaps pledged $1000 to Sao Chow University and didn't stop till they had gone over the goal.

Tap Day came twice this year and saw leaders in all phases of campus life receive recognition for their work.

Alpha Psi Omega and the Millsaps Players won laurels for such productions as "Dear Ruth" first semester and the one-act plays second semester. Also along the dramatic line (if you can call it that!) was the 1948 Varsity Show, "Once Over Lightly." This was the brainchild of Turnbough and Lehman, sponsored by Sigma Lambda. Stunt Night produced quite an array of amateur talent and humor to boot.

Religious Emphasis Week in December and the Pre-Easter Services were high on the calendar of religious activities and featured outstanding speakers.

In the music world, Andrew Gainey's appearance marked a Red Letter Day, for he is a former Millsaps student who hit the big-time like a veteran.

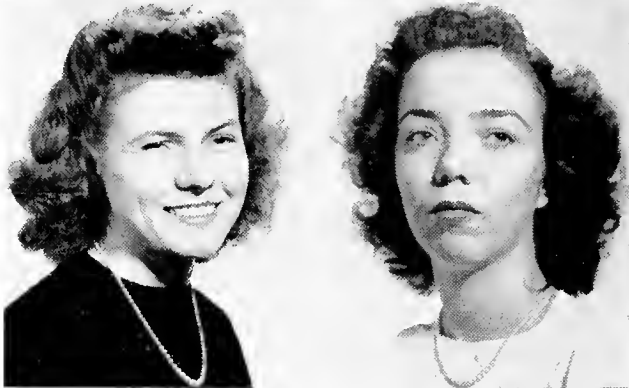

The annual fraternity campus-wide dances — K A Black and White Ball; Lambda Chi's Purple, Green and Gold Ball; and Pikes' Cotton Ball were huge successes. Now the student body looks forward to the yearly Sig Barn Dance, which always spells a gay time.

With comprehensives over, the Seniors have taken a new lease on life and eagerly await the awarding of the Sheepskin.

Thus we close the diary of events for '47-'48 and look forward to even happier days to come.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Master Major Wallace Russell added another laurel to his already full crown of glory with the Junior Class presidency. He is in Who's Who, president of the Pikes and of S. E. B., and is a member of O. D. K. There are other glories, too, but we must mention the other officers!

John Atkins, our Junior Class vice-president, is one of our rising young ministers-to-be. In a few years, he'll probably be trying to convince Dr. Smith to retire so he can take over the job of trying to keep the student body happy with his ready smile.

Mary Anna (Medlin) Underwood pulled a fast one and got married at Christmas, but that didn't deprive us of a secretary-treasurer for the Juniors. A member of Beta Sigma Omicron, Mary Ann is interested in music and is president of the Beethoven Club.

That man-about-town Jim Borwick must have kissed all the babes to win this class presidency! Seriously speaking, this ex-Marine will probably prove to be a Southern Gentleman and a politician as well, if given a chance. (He's a K.A., if you didn't understand the previous remark.)

Further proving the superiority (numerical, anyway) of the male at Millsaps, Lee Miers holds down the Sophomore vice-presidency. No matter how hard they try, Millsaps co-eds can't drag him away from his loyalty to the blonde at the University of Alabama.

Too busy with her many duties, Darris Liming couldn't make it to pose for the picture, but we'll forgive her 'cause she's so efficient in things that matter. She's a Beta Sig, secretary of Christian Council, and goodness knows what else.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Freshman class president Clay Lee doesn't let things bother him. Easy-going, heart-winning Clay can be depended upon for fun and a good disposition. He's one of the Pike boys who hail from Laurel.

A Jacksonion, Cecil Jenkins copped the vice-presidency of the freshman class. He heads the Kappa Alpha pledges and is a prominent pillar in the Millsaps Singers, too.

Following in the footsteps of her graduate sister, Liz Ridgway believes in starting early to make a name for herself. She pledged Kappa Delta, and now holds down the secretary-treasurer's post for the frosh.

Our student government is composed of this choice group who bear well the burden of governing the affairs of the students. Their main headache comes from planning and regulating the complete calendar of the year's events. In short, they're the "big shots" who watch over each of us, from the greenest freshman to the oldest football player!

This group is the co-ed's governing body. It strives to strike a happy medium between the girls and the faculty. The council is composed of a representative from each sorority, the YWCA, and the Majorette Club. Of chief concern to co-eds, they decide which nights will be "late nights" and how late they shall be.

The Bobashela, the Millsaps College yearbook, is a student publication under the faculty sponsorship of Dr. Ross Moore. After months of collecting lists of organization membership, holding elections, getting pictures made, identifying people, doing literary work, and getting it all typed, the Bobashela went to press. Much hair was pulled out by the roots and many people narrowly missed the wrath of editor or staff heads in the struggle to meet deadlines. But in the long run, everything came out all right and the staff found they lived up to the meaning of the name Bobashela . . . they became "good friends."

In the south basement of the library, these future journalists can be found putting all the latest news into print, along with outstanding features and the gossip of the Finger of Scorn and the Classified Ads. Editor Carl Guernsey had a doubly hard job this year as the paper was returned to its pre-war weekly status, but was well aided by assistants Ralph Hutto and Dick Dever and a capable staff. Sutton Marks, in his second year as business manager, made the paper pay for itself. And so a "finger" at the Purple and White for being a successful campus favorite!

MILLSAPS SINGERS

NIGHTINGALES IN PURPLE AND WHITE

Again this year "Pop" King and his hard practicing array of singers gave the school a Glee Club of which it was justly proud. The perfection of their performance proved the value of those early morning, all afternoon, and half the night practice sessions. However, they were well rewarded with several trips, some of the experiences of which will never be forgotten. Once more the Singers lived up to their old tradition of being the best in the land.

THEY BRING OUT THE SPIRIT IN FOOTBALL FANS

After a lapse of several years during the war, Millsaps' musical life has been rejuvenated by the reorganization of the band. The quality of the band as a whole is found in the excellence of its members, and in the expression of good music emanating from the many instruments.

THEY ARGUE FOR BREAKFAST, DINNER AND SUPPER

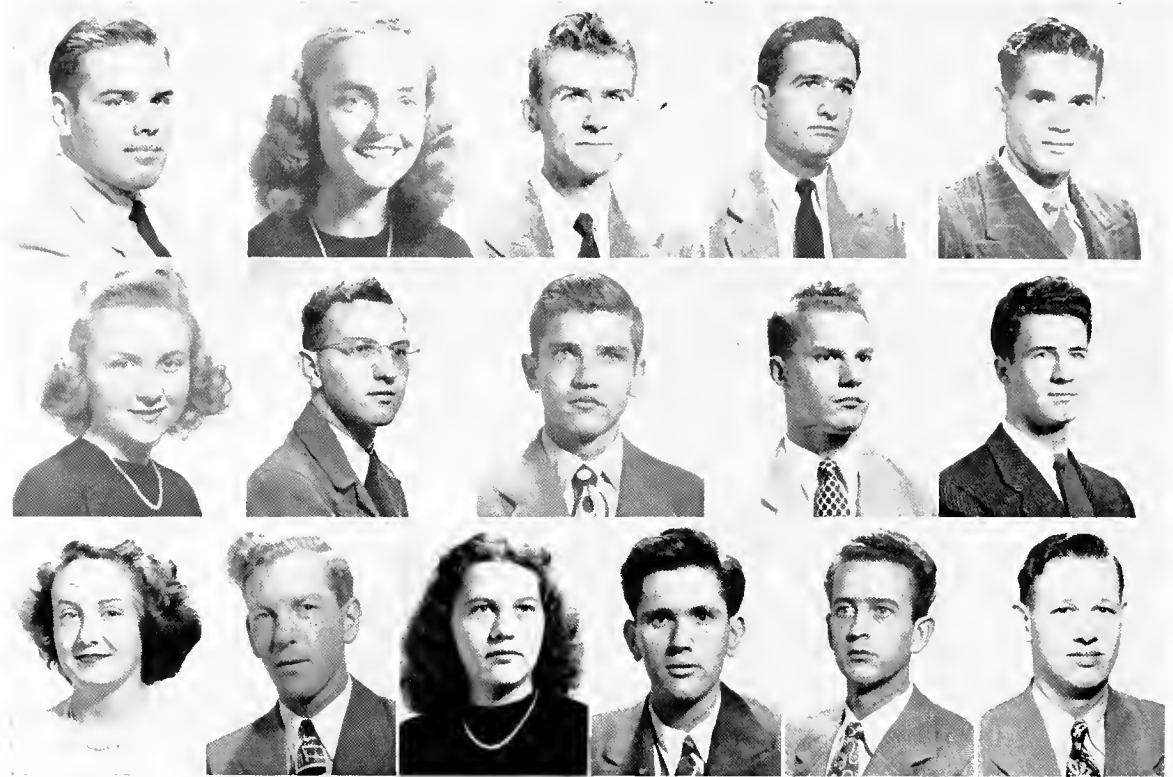

Many of the best speakers and thinkers of the school are found in the most active organizations. From this group come the debate teams that represent Millsaps in inter-collegiate "squabbles," and they do mighty well, too. The debaters work long and hard, but oddly enough seem to enjoy it.

The Christian Council is the organization that sponsors all religious activities on the campus. Through its efforts, the character of the Millsaps student is guided along the right path. Highlights on the year's calendar were the highly successful Religious Emphasis Weeks and the Christian Student Fellowship Drive.

Made up of the interested Methodist students, this somewhat new organization has started great strides. It sponsors many activities which are carried out by the students themselves. Two of the projects included in their curriculum are the distribution of the student magazine Motive and the selection of summer caravan members.

The cabinet is a group of select YMCA personalities who officially and unofficially run the Y. The Campus Handbook and Vespers, sponsored jointly with the YW, are just a couple of their worthwhile activities. Their programs are varied and interesting. Important this year was the formation of a Hospitality Club within the Y.

One of the most worthwhile organizations, the Y has added much to campus life. Notable among their achievements are the annual parties for the orphans, which are always a big success; the Social Mixer for the frosh when school begins; interesting and timely programs. Together with the YM, they put out the helpful Handbook and sponsor Vespers each evening.

The Canterbury Club is a college organization of Episcopal students, founded on worship, study, service, giving, unity, and evangelism. The Millsaps chapter is associated with St. Andrew's Parish. Although a young group on the Millsaps campus, being first organized in 1946 with Bill Maute as president, the Canterbury Club is fast making itself a vital, active, firmly established tradition.

Women's Pan-Hellenic is the organization which controls the feminine half of the Millsaps Greek Letter world. Composed of two members from each of the four national Pan-Hellenic sororities on the campus, it makes the rushing rules and carries them out. At the beginning of each year, Women's Pan-Hellenic sponsors a tea for the rushees, thus providing an example of the co-ordination of sororities that the group seeks to achieve.

Here Betas, there Betas, everywhere Betas, or so it seems, as these girls have been more than busy this year. Prominent Berryhill, who heads many campus organizations, and Lampton, who is president of Women's Council, were listed in Who's Who. Myers, Price, and Hays were topped by KDE. Blumer was a member of the "Dear Ruth" cast. Berryhill was elected secretary-treasurer of the student body and also of the senior class. Medlin and Liming were also class officers. The boys were entertained at a Southern Ball. Jean-clad Betas scrubbed and polished for days as they moved into their chapter apartment on Congress Street. The Betas also visited the Charity Hospital each week.

This year the Chi O's have managed to hold fast to their traditions of brains plus beauty. Jean Houghton, Sis, and Lucy were among this year's debutantes, Lucy being the president of the group. Lou Kern was selected Freshman Queen and Freshman Cheerleader; Sis, Porter, and Truly represented our ranks in the honoraries. Dossett was a beauty, while Ragland, Rhymes, and Corley were favorites. Houghton turned dramatic and walked off with the lead in "Dear Ruth." In a mad seige of pinnings, Lucy, Linda, Janie Calmes, and Dot Doty snagged one apiece to tie down the men in their lives, while at Christmas, Truly took the fatal step and promptly began to burn her hands cooking for Jack.

The girls of the diamond shield once again filled a year with activities and honors. They celebrated their golden anniversary with a reception for the faculty and students. Their dates were entertained in the Kappa Delta Garden of Dreams with a fairyland theme. Sanderson, Swartwout and Ammons were on the list of beauties. Applewhite and Swartwout won dramatic honors in "Dear Ruth." Tennant helped cheer us to victory as a cheerleader. Ridgway was elected secretary of the freshman class. But the most exciting happening of the year was actually getting the house papered.

The Vikings is an organization for independent girls. It is one of the outstanding groups on the campus. They are non-Greeks and are proud of their members who are chosen for all sorts of honors. Ann Stockton was tapped by Sigma Lambda and also was chosen for Who's Who. She, among other things, heads the YWCA Cabinet and is on Christian Council. Jimmie Lou Moore, Pat Reed, and Frances Pittman represent the group in the Majorette Club, and give only a sample of the power of all Vikings intramurals teams. President Reed is on S. E. The KA's have upheld their southern traditions at Millsaps for over half a century. Led by "slow but sure" Longmire, they have excelled this year in sports and, of course, in romance. Martin Baker finally decided love wasn't so bad, after all, and parted with his pin. With Bishop, Holmes, Dever, and Davis as some of the representatives to the honoraries, this whole group of Dixieland boys has had a leading part in all activities of the school. Rush and Borwick copped class presidencies to add to the chapter laurels. One need look no further than the KA house for entertainment, for such characters as Borwick, Boadwee, Longinotti, and Williams keep the whole campus in a continuous uproar.

The members of Kappa Sig's "Star and Crescent" have again enlightened their way through another big year with such stellar ODKs as O'Brien and Carter taking the lead, and Miers afficiating as saphomare vice-prexy. Clay, Mann, Box, Howard, Decell, and Lee are still limping after trying for months to follow orders given by head cheerleader Hays. Oh, yes, the last Barn Dance was not soon forgotten, or in the words of Tucker Fleming, "It was a good 'un!" Over at the house, "Mickey Mouse" Mann wields the club as house manager, while party boys Hill and May promise bigger and better meetings of the "Wednesday Nite Club."

Glancing over their shoulders at a year of rapid change, the old guard having left shoes of impressive size to be filled, the men of Theta Eta of Lambda Chi Alpha look cheerfully and confidently forward. More easily characterized than typified, Theta Eta has found success in all the past year's ventures — win, lose, or draw. The student body found a social high spot in the "Purple, Green, and Gold Ball" and has chalked up one more to Lambda Chi's credit. Not to be accused of unwillingness to participate in any field of activity, Harry Whyte and T. C. Miller are competing for campus honors in the vital statistics department. With boys like "Preacher" Frank Brown, Howard Trimble, and Harry James sparking the working organization, Theta Eta has remained a potent factor on the campus. You will find Lambda Chi's in all phases of campus activity and, to a man, you will find them to be solid citizens.

The boys of the shield and diamond maintained the fast pace set by their high standards years ago. Two class presidencies went their way; Guernsey edited the P&W, aided by Hutto, with Marks holding the money bags. ODKs Russell and Maddox make more evident the leadership ability the chapter strives to achieve. Lehman, McWilliams, C. Wright, Guernsey, and Zander pulled down other presidencies. Alpha Iota led the entire campus in membership in the honoraries; three were in Who's Who. Renewal of the traditional Cotton Ball climaxed the socials. Cupcake remained "a paragraph in himself."

The COACH

DOBY BARTLING
Coach

Completing his second year at Millsaps as Head Coach and Athletic Director, Coach Doby Bartling had the privilege of doing a thing that had not been done in a decade. On the night of October 25, at Tiger Stadium, the Millsaps Majors met the Mississippi College Choctaws in their annual gridiron clash. From the starting whistle to the last play the Bartling-coached team took a lead secured early in the football game and defeated the previously invincible Choctaws 7-0.

Coach Bartling not only has been the brains behind the games—football, basketball, and baseball—but also has been throughout it all a friend and a helper to each of his boys. He never asks what he himself wouldn't attempt to do. The biggest tribute the boys could have paid him was their loyalty to him and was also the increasing numbers of men who turned out for each of the sports this year.

MILLSAPS

Winning four out of six football games, the Millsaps Majors scored 80 points to their opponents' 50. The highlight of the 1948 season came in Millsaps' 7-0 win over the Mississippi College Choctaws. Quarterback Jay Jackson dealt the Choctaws their misery in two doses when he first scored from the three yard line and then kicked the extra point.

Although a heavy rain put a damper on the Homecoming Day activities, the Majors were able to swim to a victory over the Lynxmen from Southwestern and then the student body retired to the Victory Room for a real celebration sponsored by the M Club. We might add that the sponsors chosen for this game and the whole series of events added much to the beauty of the occasion.

Aside from a very successful season, the Millsaps Majors were also able to place two men on the 1948 Little All-American Team—Halfback Dave McIntosh from McComb and Center John Christmas of Vicksburg.

BASKETBALL

The 1948 basketball season saw the Millsaps Major basketeers take to the courts with zest and fire. Showing plenty of spirit, the local five defeated the Chactaws in the first clash but couldn't manage to keep up this record in the remaining games of the series with the arch-enemy. Other appanents came and went with the Major thinclads always putting up a good fight regardless of the scare. The team didn't break even in the win-lase columns, but sportsmanship won aut every time.

In spring a co-ed's fancy turns to lots of important things, not the least of which is tennis. However, it would be a wrong impression if anyone thought that the courts just lay idle during the rest of the year. There's not too long a period of the school term when a player can't get in some good, enjoyable exercise out there.

Many a girl has found that you don't have to know how to hit the ball when you first begin, but it helps.

Besides being good fun, the list of new and better friends (both male and female) made on the tennis courts just grows by leaps and bounds. Perhaps this last thought attracts almost as many people as does the sport itself.

G O L F

As soon as school gets under way, the golf course becomes a haven of relaxation from the day's grind. With advanced golfers getting in a few strokes between groups of freshmen beginners in physical education classes, the place is teeming with activity.

The word "fore" is constantly singing through the air as swarms of people vie for the lowest score. And the best part of it all is that no matter whether you win or lose, a good time can be had.

On the campus, golf is an invigorating and a pleasant pastime that a great many students have taken advantage of.

"Lil 'Un" Prepares A Mighty Drive.

McAllily, Spengler, Yerby, Davis, Campbell, McInturff — Front and Rear With Basketball.

B A S K E T B A L L

Winter's cold, stormy gales blow in and campus cuties often seek recreation indoors. The logical place for this being the gym, the crowd assembles there every time it's possible.

For many girls who saw a great deal of action on hard-wood courts in high schools, there's a thrill in both the heart and the mind to hear the soft pitter of rubber-soled feet scampering across the court, the thud of the ball bouncing on the floor, and the swish of the net as someone makes a goal.

Others wander out, skeptically at first, then more and more willingly, wondering why they haven't tried this before. They just hadn't realized how much one could get from such activity. But once a basketball lover, always one.

VOLLEYBALL . . .

Volleyball is another of the indoor sports and the first to receive a working-over in intramural competition. The game this year was played hard and fast. Many girls who had never before been exposed to a volleyball court found time this year to become good players. With a combination of these and the more experienced players, any game proved to be very interesting indeed.

RIDING . . .

Horses, enough to go around — willing riders, the more the merrier — spirits of adventure and excitement — heaping portions of Friendship — and maybe even a dash of picnic lunch, for added flavor. These are the ingredients called for in having a glad time that begins with the planning and never ends, because you always have memories.

Get your horses from Stockett's Stables, you'll have no trouble finding willing riders; excitement will mount up while everything else is being attended to, and friendship will just naturally be around. After the scene has been set, a ride through the woods, by the river's edge or wherever one chooses, is in order. Makes an unlimited amount of fun!

This recipe bears a guarantee.

ARCHERY . . .

"I shot an arrow into the air.
It fell to earth I knew not where."

But there are people who can tell exactly where the arrow will land and it's not usually on the earth, but in the bull's-eye! These sheer geniuses (genii?) are the kind who spend much of their spare time with a bow in one hand and an arrow in the target. Many students have discovered the pleasures of a date with an archery set — especially when there's competition involved.

WOMEN'S INTRA-MURALS

INTRAMURALS MANAGERS

The planning commission for girls' sports is composed of one representative from each of the five girls' social organizations. These girls hold regular meetings and decide first what sport they will concentrate on at a particular season, and then they set the calendar for the games and practice periods for each group.

Front: Moore, Bethea; Bock; Lompton, Williams, Robertson.

INTRAMURALS VOLLEYBALL

The volleyball cup this year went to an undefeated Viking team. Fast and furious, the volleyball season was a successful one this year.

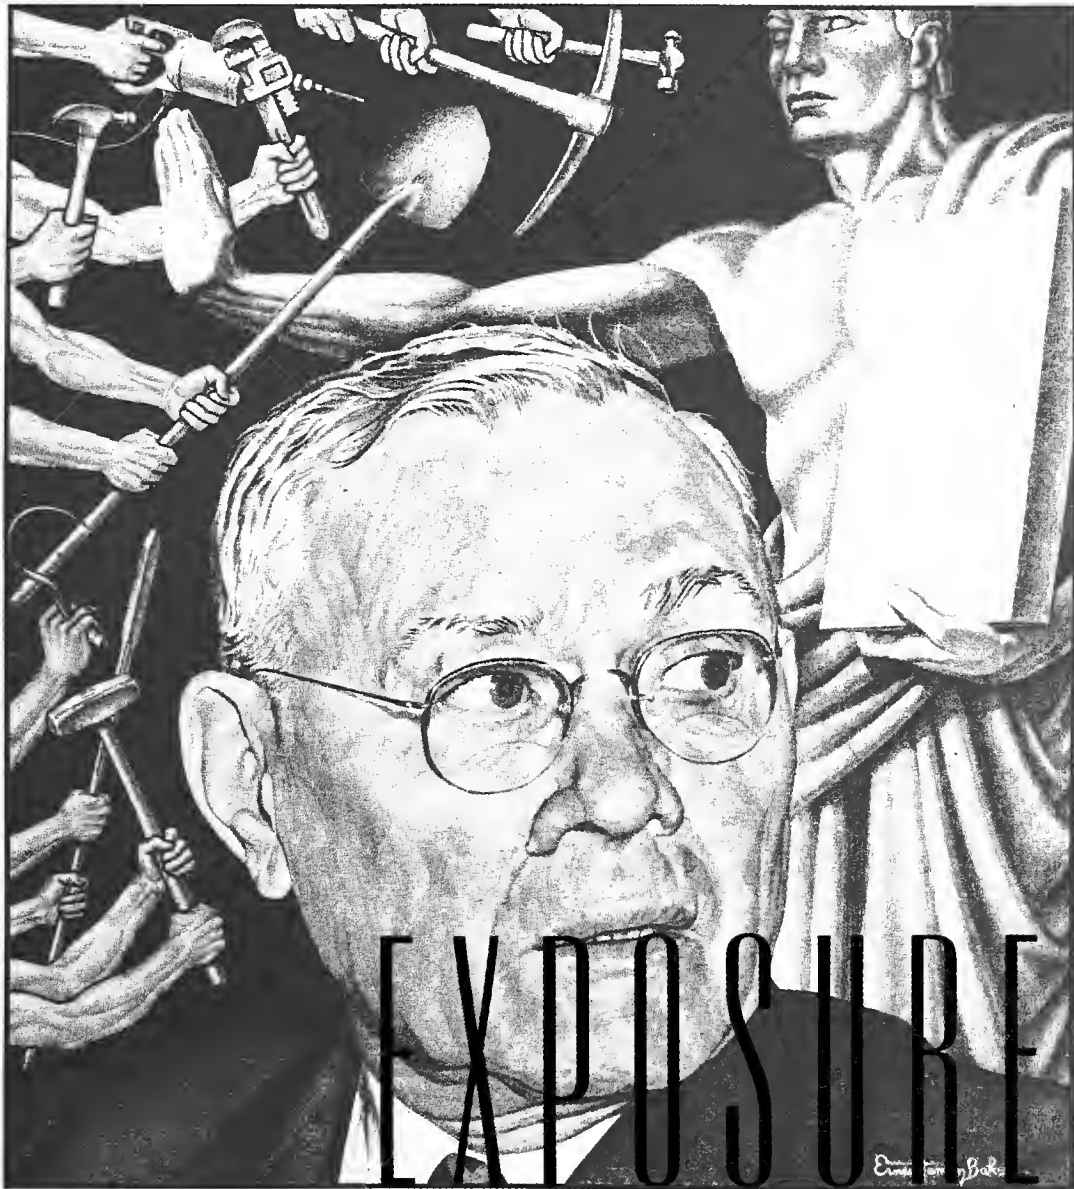

The standings at the close of the season in volleyball were first place, Vikings; second place, Koppa Delta; third, Beta Sigma Omicron; fourth, Chi Omega and fifth, Phi Mu.

 Middle Row: Reed, Coge, Morcum

The editor and the staff of this, your 1948 Bobashelo, wish to take this opportunity to express their appreciation to all those who have helped make the yearbook a success.

To Mr. Wood, we would like to say "Thanks for fixing our office up." To "Sweets" Bennett, thanks for all the help on stencils and elections; to Miss Bufkin for all the information; and to our beloved "Smiley" for keeping us happy in spite of our trials and tribulations. Last, we would like to say a big "Thank you" to the student body for their support and help in making the book possible.

The editor would like to take this opportunity to tell all the staff that it has been a real pleasure to work with each of you. To the student body, it has been a privilege to serve you in this capacity and the editor wishes to express her appreciation for the opportunity of holding this position.

We would also like to express our appreciation to the following companies, who through their generosity have made possible our theme:

OUR TREASURED LANDMARKS

will Endure

Long after war has ceased they will stand as beacons to the American Way . . . to greater achievement in religion, arts, science, research, and industry. The way is not easy. It is narrow. It is sometimes rough. Other paths beckon alluringly, as seeming short cuts. But in mankind's halting progress through the ages many paths have been explored before. If now in uncertainty we change paths we will slow up progress and confuse those whose eyes are on us. By further smoothing of the proved paths we can continue to inspire earnest men everywhere to follow the way that already has led one nation so far toward the better and happier life for all.
